Useful Resources

Google Scholar

A search engine that provides access to scholarly articles, theses, books, and conference papers across various disciplines.

BibGuru

A citation management tool that simplifies the process of generating and organizing bibliographies and citations in various academic styles.

Uni Ready Toolkit

A resource to help students develop academic skills and strategies including time management, research, and writing techniques.

Purdue Online Writing Lab

OWL offers comprehensive writing resources, including guidelines and tutorials on grammar, style, citation, and research to assist students.

Sample Written Assessments

Provides access to sample written assignments, offering examples and guidance to improve their academic writing and assignment skills.

Grade Calculator

This tool allows users to input their grades and weightings to compute their overall course average and predict future performance.

Research Rabbit

A tool that helps discover and visualise connections between academic papers, facilitating more efficient literature reviews and research.

Useful Resources

Studiosity
A free platform (depending on the institution) that provides students with on-demand academic support, expert assistance, tutoring, and resources

Turnitin
A tool that checks academic work for originality by comparing it against a vast database of sources to detect potential plagiarism.

Using AI in Your Studies
This video aims to introduce students to the concept of AI in education, discuss its benefits, and explore how it can enrich their learning journey.

Keyboard Shortcuts
List of keys or combination of keys that offer a faster alternative to performing tasks typically done with a mouse.

Assessment Planner
A detailed planner to help students break down their assignments into manageable tasks and deadlines. For a similar planner, see the following link: RMIT Assignment Planner

Focus app
A productivity app that helps users stay focused by growing a virtual tree as they work, which withers if they leave the app.

Grammarly
A tool that enhances writing by checking for grammar, punctuation, style, and clarity. It offers suggestions to improve overall readability.